Date: 30th January, 2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Council of International Chambers of Commerce (CICC)
Legal Department - MHQ

Public Clarification on the Authorized Use of the CICC Name and Logo

The Council of International Chambers of Commerce (CICC) issues this press release through its Legal Department – MHQ to clarify the authorized use of the Council's name, logo, and institutional identity.

The CICC name, logo, and official representation are exclusively reserved for individuals, businesses, and organizations that are formally registered and duly authorized as Members, Strategic Partners, or Strategic Partner Members of the Council.

Any use of the CICC name, logo, or institutional identity without formal written authorization is considered unauthorized and misleading to the public. Such actions are carried out under the sole responsibility of the parties involved, and the Council does not recognize, endorse, or assume liability for any activities, proposals, or representations made under unauthorized use of its identity.

The Legal Department of the Council of International Chambers of Commerce reserves the full right to take appropriate legal, institutional, and regulatory measures against any individual or entity found to be misusing the CICC name, logo, or representation, in accordance with applicable international standards and governance frameworks.

This press release is issued as a public clarification to protect institutional integrity, transparency, and public trust.
